I look around what I see
I know it can't be right
Oh
Washed up to the shore
Feeling like it can't be right
Oh

Look at this stuff
It is all around

This world seems like a crazy place
The way some people made it
It is a like a shipreck
Some things seem like a masquade
Doing the things they do and did
They made a crazy mess and shipreck

If I could change the world
And make it a better place
You know I would
Help feed and clothed the poor
And the homeless
I maybe could

This world seems like a crazy place
The way some people made it
It is a like a shipreck
Some things seem like a masquade
Doing the things they do and did
They made a crazy mess and shipreck

Overboard and crashed up to the shore
To say that I can't take this no more
I will try to help you
But I am willing to help and do what I can
I will be there and try to understand
Tell me what you are going through

This world seems like a crazy place
The way some people made it
It is a like a shipreck

Some things seem like a masquade
Doing the things they do and did
They made a crazy mess and shipreck

Oh a shipreck
Oh like a shipreck
