Some things to say
And I have said this before
And I don't understand
But it washed up to the shore

Some things are not always crystal clear
The truth seems like a blur

Like the break of dawn
And the moon
They way the sun shines
And coming out of a cocoon

A butterfly to spread their wings
The river that is blue
The river that is blue

A beautiful day
Some how some way
I believe in change
If you want to change
It is okay
It is not too late
If you want to change
You can change
People knock you down
But you have a reason to smile
Because you are here
You are here

God has a purpose for it all
And god had put you here
Change could be good
But you don't have to fear

The pain you have
God knows your tears
God knows your tears

[X2]

A beautiful day

Some how some way
I believe in change
If you want to change
It is okay
It is not too late
If you want to change
You can change
People knock you down
But you have a reason to smile
Because you are here
You are here
