It's daylight and I didn't even realize cause my curtains never open to the sun
It's daylight but it's dark inside these walls and I never have to leave when there's food delivery
It's daylight and the people go outside and they do the things they do
while I'm stuck inside this room
It's daylight and I didn't even realize cause my
curtains never open to
the sun
never have to leave
when there's food delivery
It's daylight and the people go outside and they do
the things they do
while I'm stuck inside this room

Wake up little girl
Stop covering your eyes
There's a life for you to live
And a family who loves you and some friends who want to see you

It's nighttime the time that I should sleep, but I'm longing for the day I left behind It's nighttime, but it's light inside these walls and the TV shows the happiness I want It's nighttime and I'm sad because I'm tired, but it might be that I'm tired cause I'm sad

Wake up little girl
Stop covering your eyes
There's a life for you to live
to see you

Give them what they want little girl, don't be so afraid

It's just one bad day little girl

It's just one bad day

Wake up, wake up, wake up please oh please

Wake up, wake up, wake up please

Won't you wake up

Won't you wake up

Wake up little girl

Stop covering your eyes

to see you

Give them what they want little girl, don't be so afraid
