"Sky Is Falling"

Dark isolation binds us.
We're all twisted up in clouds
Hellbound
The sky is falling down.

The beast inside of all of us
Is dying to get out
To stealthily kill and live within the trust that we give it.

There's the beast inside of all of us
Let it be let out now
Let it roam free among us.
The sky is falling down.

There can we stop?
Just for a moment
Look at the ocean
Don't look up.
The sky is falling down.

There If we are blessed to witness it again
For the betterment of man
All we can do is cherish the sound.
The sky is falling down.
