Everyday I realize a feeling that I cannot hide
From you my friend if you could read my mind
Everyday I'm hypnotized everytime you look and smile at me
I see the heaven in your eyes

And everyday's a special day and every place a special place
With you my friend when I'm with you

Chorus:

If you could read my mind if you could only see the signs
I'll be yours from now just take this heart of mine
I will be your everything and more
I could be the one you're looking for
For all we know my friend for all we know
If you could read my mind

I never thought that fairy tales Wishing wells or happy tales come true
But they do, Everyday (time) with you Everytime I'm feeling blue
All I have to do is think of you and then You'll fill my heart with love I never knew

I'll never waste a single day
With you I'm always all the way
With you my friend when I'm with you

Repeat Chorus

Bridge:

When problems get me down
Only you can make the day end right
When I'm with you

If you could read my mind if you could
only see the signs

I'll be yours from now just take this
heart of mine
I will be your everything and more
I could be the one you're looking for
For all we know my friend for all we know
For all we know my friend for all we
know
If you could read my mind
If you could read my mind...if only you could read my mind
