I see that she has hurt you bad
I think that it's really sad
That she's made a cynic of you now
If only you'd let me try
I think I could change your mind
And show you what true love's all about

Refrain:

I know what you're going through
Take your time I'll be here for you

Chorus:

You say you'll never be ready for love
You say that you have had enough
But what if I, what if I
Could love you forever
You say you can't afford anymore
To have your heart broken like before
But what if I, what if I
We're the one you needed all this time
What If I told you
I'd make you forever mine

I don't believe at all
You'd ever be all alone
Cause I know just what you're looking for Someone who will stand by you
Whatever life takes you through
And be there for you forevermore

Bridge:

What if there's a reason that I
Have come into your life
Just when you needed a friend
You have got to open your mind
Maybe now there's no time
You're about to find love that will never end
Never end...
