She was a friend
A friend of a friend
And I thought it was supposed to be like it
I thought you would end
Up with a boyfriend
But always thinking about me when you go sleep

Well, I was wrong
I wrote you this song
To let you know
What you need to know

That all I need is to make sure you love
That you love me and there's nothing above
And now that we have found each others hand
Our stories will never part ways again

She was a friend
A friend of mine
The type that we spend our lives trying to find
I thought in the end
You'd be okay
Watching the love of your life fading away
