I am aglow with thoughts of you
Are the stories that you told me true?
It doesn't matter if they are
They are to me
I am aglow

Some might say these thoughts are wrong
That you might see yourself in this song
I hope that you don't mind if you do
I am aglow with thoughts of you

Does it matter that what I remember might be Just my own imagination painting scenes more pretty
Is it obvious? Does it show?
With thoughts of you I am aglow

Some might say I'm thinking in sin
So I'll just sit back and take you in
You're a map of a place
