Sneering smiles fill my eyes
And laugh at tears that fall from the weight of unspeakable fears
I wonder aloud in curious tones
Could I be proud when they hate me and mock me?
(Hate me)
(Mock me)
What is the mind of the God that created me
I am different, I am despised
I am ever looking through the smallest of eyes
Your eyes see what mine cannot see

You are my God, You are life
You are the strength I need
You are the love surrounding broken hearts
You set me free

You are my God, You are life
You are the strength I need
You are the love surrounding broken hearts
You set me free

The world around me is changing
(Changing)
All that was familiar is fading
Those I thought would never leave me left me cold
All I have from the friends that forever I'd known
All I have are names etched in headstones
And the questions of meaning and reason
These small eyes of mine can't see past this one season
Your eyes see what mine cannot see

You are my God, You are life
You are the strength I need
You are the love surrounding broken hearts
You set me free

You are my God, You are life
You are the strength I need
You are the love surrounding broken hearts
You set me free

Show me Your eyes, show me Your mind
Show me what You see
Show me Your eyes, show me Your mind
Show me all I need

Show me Your eyes, show me Your mind
Show me what You see
Show me Your eyes, show me Your mind
Show me all

(Show me now)
You are my God, You are life
(Show me now)
You are the strength I need
(Show me now)
You are the love surrounding broken hearts
You set me free

(Show me now)
You are my God, You are life
(Show me now)
You are the strength I need
(Show me now)
You are the love surrounding broken hearts
You set me free

(Show me now)
You are my God, You are life
(Show me now)
You are the strength I need
(Show me now)
You are the love surrounding broken hearts
You set me free

(Show me now)
You are my God, You are life
(Show me now)
You are the strength I need
(Show me now)
You are the love surrounding broken hearts
You set me free
