Wrap your innocence around you

When the sun stes in this ageless sky
I'll wipe your tears, kiss them dry And as I kneel beside your bed and sing you to your sleep
I pray to God, your hopes I'll keep While your gently sleeping, peaceful dreaming
I pray that nothing ever haunts you, baby

Wrap your innocence around you

As you look out of the window of your world
What do you see? Tell me!
Your trusting eyes are full of wonder and delight
To share with me, so free
You're my precious angel, sweet, sweet angel
I was lost until I found you, baby

Wrap your innocence around you

Deep down in my soul, oh I know, yes I know that you're on loan
One day you will fly away
You are my angel and I thank my God that each and every day
He allows me to share you till you go away Deep down in my soul, oh I know, yes I know that you're
on loan

Deep down in my soul, all I know, yes I know that you're
on loan

For you I would hold up the sky
You are my angel and I thank my God for each and
every day
He allows me to share you until you go away

Deep down
In my soul
I know
