I wish I could blame it on him

But I know it's my pride

That led to his taillights

I had to have the last word

Me and my big mouth

My life just walked out and

That's a lot to let go of

That's a tough one to take

Maybe someone should grow up

We all make mistakes

Looks like Miss Know-It-All

Just might be wrong

'Cause here I am missin' his love

And that's a lot to let go of

I wish I could go back in time

Crawl back in his arms

This cold bed could feel warm

Why would I throw such a fit

All over nothing

We sure had somethin' and

That's a lot to let go of

That's a tough one to take
Maybe someone should grow up
We all make mistakes
Looks like Miss Know-It-All
Just might be wrong
'Cause here I am missin' his love
And that's a lot to let go of
And that's a whole lot of bein' alone
A whole lot of sittin' by the phone
A whole lot of knowin' damn well I was wrong
That's a lot to let go of
That's a tough one to take
Maybe someone should grow up
We all make mistakes
Looks like Miss Know-It-All
Just might be wrong
'Cause here I am missin' his love
And that's a lot to let go of
A lot to let go of
