If you could hold your woman
Like you hold your whiskey
I'd still be in your arms

You come when you're lonely
And even then it's only
When you know the party's shuttin' down

You bring up the old times
And you want to know why
We're not still together now

It ain't that hard to figure out

If you could hold your woman
Like you hold your whiskey
I'd still be in your arms

If you're gonna fill your glass
And leave my heart empty
Then let ol' Jack Daniels keep you warm

Thought if I loved you
It'd be enough to
Turn you around and keep you comin' home

If there was a reason
To give in to weakness
You'd always find it for too long

You know I need a man who's strong

If you could hold your woman
Like you hold your whiskey
I'd still be in your arms

If you're gonna fill your glass
And leave my heart empty
Then let ol' Jack Daniels keep you warm

If you could hold your woman
Like you hold your whiskey

Then I'd still be in your arms
