I can't believe you'd do that to me, use me
You fooled around and wrecked my heart
She's just a skank, rode hard and put up
Well, good luck

I would've given you the finger on my left hand
The one that you use for a wedding band

But now I'm givin' you the one in the middle
The one that's a little bit longer
And I got another one on my other hand
So I can say it even stronger

If you're askin' if I'm done
Well, I'm sure not sayin' you're number one
No, now I'm givin' you the one in the middle
The one that says we're through

I hope you're happy with your sad life, that's right
I hope you get what you deserve
And when you're tired of TV dinners
Remember

I would've given you the finger on my left hand
The one that you use for a wedding band

And now I'm givin' you the one in the middle
The one that's a little bit longer
And I got another one on my other hand
So I can say it even stronger

If you're askin' if I'm done
Well, I'm sure not sayin' you're number one

Well, you made your bed, so go lay in it
And you forced my heart and hands to the limit
Ah, yeah and I've had it with you, darlin'
That's right

And now I'm givin' you the one in the middle
The one that's a little bit longer
And I got another one on my other hand

So I can say it even stronger

If you're askin' if I'm done
Well, I'm sure not sayin' you're number one
No, now I'm givin' you the one in the middle
The one that says we're through

Oh, yeah, read between the lines, baby
