Lift up your head
Eyes off the floor
Your time is coming
Right after this storm
Don't be afraid
Of what lies ahead
It's destiny callin'
Where you've never been

How deep is soul?
How strong can one heart be?
It's never too late

While we're still breathing
It's never too late
While we're still breathing
It's never too late

Don't close your eyes
The best part is coming
The strength of tomorrow
Meets the power of now
Contentment is art
Contentment is answer
Now be still my heart
As you learn to love

How deep is soul?
How strong can one heart be?
It's never too late

While we're still breathing
It's never too late
While we're still breathing
It's never too late

How deep is soul?
How strong can one heart be?
How deep is soul?
How strong can your heart be?
No it's never too late

While we're still breathing
It's never too late
While we're still breathing
It's never too late
