No more weary teary eyes
Just sunny skies
Never have I felt so alone
My how I've grown
Maybe that's the way it's supposed to be
As I'm walking down the street
Maybe if it's just you and me
We'll never even miss a beat...maybe

(Chorus:)

Take me away
Take me away
All that I love is You
Is You

Captured by your love I'm such a fool
A fool for you
The day You laid Your hand upon my heart
Tore my world apart
There's been so many times that I have prayed
To hear You speak my name
And though I haven't seen You face to face
I search for You everyday

(Chorus)

Come what will and come what may
I know Your love will remain
Through the joy and through all the pain
I surrender
And it makes me want to fly

(Chorus)
