Stay stay for a while Say that things will come right I'll believe in your lie Stay with me for a while (with me for a while)

I've got so much to reconstruct What had we said What had we done We couldn't stand the test - the test of time.

Did you keep your love for me? Don't let me guess of things, don't let me see Don't hide your eyes from me I really mean!

Stay stay for a while Say that things will come right I'll believe in your lie Stay with me for a while (with me for a while)

> I've got so much to recognize We should be both critisized Some things' hard to revise But one look of your eyes...

Did you keep your love for me? Don't let me guess of things, don't let me see Don't hide your eyes from me I really mean!

Stay stay for a while Say that things will come right I'll believe in your lie Stay with me for a while (with me for a while)

Stay stay for a while

Say that things will come right I'll believe in your lie Stay with me for a while (with me for a while)
