I recall myself thinking
Of what I'm supposed to do
Sitting there, just wishing
Upon a star or two

Then there was You
You saw my heart and I knew
There's only one thing left for me to do
For me to say that

I will always love you
More than a girl like me can ever do
I will always love you
All I want to do, is spend my life with you

Darling I know you've been there all along
You held me close, and you made me strong
You have my heart now, make it your home
You're on your knees, holding up a stone

I say "I Do,
I'll be forever true"
There's only one thing left for me to do
For me to say that

I will always love you
More than a girl like me can ever do
I will always love you
All I want to do, is spend my life with

You, You are my first and last
No one else can compare
To you, you're locked inside my heart
No one else has the key
Cause you are the one for me and

I will always love you
By my side you will forever be
I will always love you
All I want to do, is spend my life with you

I will always love you
More than a girl like me can ever do
I will always love you
All I want to do, is spend my life with you
