Wise up, this is not what you want or need
This is just a flame of impossible love
Take a step back lean onto the ceiling
You're perfectly capable of doing the right thing

Just leave it all behind

Keep on moving, eyes on the road and then
When you least expect it true love is in your heart
Take a second get rid of the sorrow
Stay cool, keep calm
This flame can only burn your heart

Just leave it all behind

Wise up, this is not what you want or need
This is just a flame of impossible love
Take a step back lean onto the ceiling
You're perfectly capable of doing the right thing

Just leave it all behind.
