If you care 'bout your life, you make a lot of decisions,
You try as hard as you can to make them right,
You can always make the perfect decisions that you enjoy,
But you can also make the ones that you'll never live down.

You don't always know wrong from right,
You can make them in the day or the night,
You can sometimes see them back to front,
But it don't really matter what you decide to do.

There's a lot of things that you'll decide to do,
There's a lot of things that you'll decide not to do,
There's a lot of things that you won't have a clue about,
But I say, just stick with it 'till the end.

You need to brighten up your life,
You need to give and take a lot of strife,
You need to go as far as you can,
Until you can't go any further than you already can.
You don't always know wrong from right,
You can make them in the day or the night,
You can sometimes see them back to front,
But it don't really matter what you decide to do.

And when you're stuck with a mistaken decision,
You may wonder why it happened to you,
Well when you want to know the answer to your question,
I will tell you very soon.

You don't always know wrong from right,
You can make them in the day or the night,
You can sometimes see them back to front,
But it don't really matter what you decide to do.
