I can't believe it!
I've got a nightmare again
Can't remember...
I was a knight and I'd lost
My shining Armour
No direction that I could follow...

Wake up! isn't too bad to get up
Forget about your nightmare
This time you'll like
To get out of hand again

City lover city rider... I wanna go!
Fighting again like a tiger
Down to the town I just wanna freak out
Rocking your body forever
City lover city rider... I wanna go!
I've got a burning desire
Down to the town I just wanna get out
Sticking together & ever

Can't forget it
Dreaming again to be lost
Lost forever
Without my powerful light
I couldn't struggle
Nothing shining around me
