My mama told me: Being in love

You'll never be alone

You'll find a woman

Someone to call your very own.
Then something bad went wrong

We couldn't get along

Pack all my bags and go
And just to let you know
That I'm leaving on the midnight train.
Leaving all my tears and pain

Leaving on the midnight train

You've got me going out of my mind.
My mama told me: Don't be a fool

You gotta look around

You'll find a woman

Someone to call your very own.
Then something bad went wrong

...

My mama told me: Being in love

My mama told me: Don't be a fool
