O man I think I did it again
And he calls whenever he please
And I'll get on my knees
O man o man o man

O jeez here come The Secret Police
The Rochester peeps they've got no time for me
And he calls whenever he please
O man o man o man

O no we're at the Sarah Harmer show
She's coming up next you know
What else rhymes with show?
And he calls whenever he please
I'll get on my knees
O man o man o man

O no o no o no
O man o man o man . . .
