"Heartless Land"

Everything will happen
In the garden's ashes
See how close
Like to look

Silent feels unbroken
(Between us)
Don't you see horizon
(Pure white light)

Become one
Golden floor

Crashing through my black walls
Give me back my shelter
Every star
Has glowing light

Even night cannot survive
With a pure day light
Colours gone and we alone
Playing in the dark

Even we cannot recall
Our own memories back
Hopes and prays and better days
Ghost we let inside

Hold the warm inside
Till the morning sun
Hold the warm inside
Till the morning sun

Shut the blackest night
In the further stars
Leave the heartless land
You're inside of that

And you live in my hands
Careful where you stand
It's your way then you say

I am one again

People always playing gods
And they're running through their life
Show them places where you hide
Take me there let me shine

Try to believe me all the time
Try to look behind the stop sign
Air is coming from your heart
And your feet won't touch the ground
Ground
Right there

All around me it seems the truth
'Cause you made me fool
Someone win, someone lose
Doesn't matter who

Everyone you want to say
Brings you on your prides day

Try to believe me all the time

Try to believe me all the time
Try to look behind the stop sign
Air is coming from your heart
Ground,
Right there
