Not a word, not hello
Nor how are you, nothing
No response, I've been eradicated
I've been erased, and now...
Whispers would sound like screams at This point in time

In short, I would say, I would say it's over, time to go
This time I'll try tear out the heart and cut off the limbs...
I would say, I would say
I've been here before and tried to drown it, this time I...

How this place became so barren and frozen in such a small period is beyond me

I thought there was warmth
I thought stupidly that this would Farewell to everything, this world has done to me
Turns out I'm going to fit in just fine

In short, I would say, I would say it's over, time to go This world is dead to me turns out I'm going to fit in just fine
I would say, I would say it's over, time to go I'm going to cut my arms open and pull at the heartstrings-

Attached to my hands until they snap and die
That must be the way
Everything I touch falls to pieces...
Everything I love turns a blind eye

Farewell to everything, this world is dead to me
Turns out I'm going to fit in just fine
I'm going to cut my arms open and pull at the heartstrings attached to my hands
Until they snap and die
That must be the way
Everything I touch falls to pieces
Everything I love turns a blind eye

I... Hate this place I'm in and I...
I only wanted to love...
But it is not enough...

I hate this place I'm in and I only wanted to love but it is not enough...
