You've got everyone here but no one to blame
Yeah you've got your words
Up in my head so I can't stay here today
And it's not what I want
Everyones here but it's never the same
Oh I've got your name, our past, the problems you made
Still your the only thing that's missing
Oh oh oh oh oh
I used to give you all of my time
Yeah I passed out by the door
I guess I waited for you there
Cause it was a mess that I would've never ever made
Still your the only thing that's missing
Cause yeah you've got your hate and Nothing ever changed
Cause distance surrounds you
Yeah you push me away
So push me away
Oh oh oh oh oh
