I went from hero to zero in one second
When I was down you inspired me to reach heaven but then you broke me and hurt me and kept breaking you pushed me over the edge and now I'm just shaking were drifting further and further away but you're still calling me back to play

It's like my body is telling me go ...
This is how you break me
Always pushing and pushing for more
This is how you thank me
Girl you break me ! (x2)

You want me begging and pleading for your attention
I'm not the same person no more, I'm someone different
Although you caught me and brought me to this conclusion
I need to fight you and conquer this here confusion
It's like you crush me and tear me apart
Then you repair me and go for my heart

It's like my body is telling me go ...
This is how you break me
Always pushing and pushing for more
This is how you thank me
Girl you break me ! (x2)

You cut me down and I thought that I wouldn't make it
But then again you break me
You take my body and spirit and then you shake it
Girl you know you break me down, down, down, down, down ..
You know you break me

It's like my body is telling me go ...
This is how you break me
Always pushing and pushing for more
This is how you thank me
