you're the only one who knows how to tickle my mouth, i can't help but to burst into laughter and everytime you're near me i dont know what to do but to hold you, and tell you i've never felt blood running through my veins thought i was frozen 'til you came with the summer rain you washed away, washed away, washed away all the things that hurts me tore apart, you tore apart, what was left to haunt me
saved me from myself
just before it was too late everything that use to matter dosen't matter anymore nothing seems just like it was before and i hang around you 'cause i'm nothing without you dont you know, i'll tell you that i want to thank you for the love you give me guess i was empty 'til you came with the summer rain you washed away, washed away, washed away
tore apart, you tore apart,
saved me from myself
and in your arms i find my home i find my faith, i find my place inside your dreams, in our nest in all you are, i have been blessed to kiss your lips, hold your heart we never end, we always start right here, next to your breathe i belong, i belong
i belong
you washed away, washed away, washed away
tore apart, you tore apart,
