my addiction grows into a feeling, i know will tare down every wall i have ever built all the safteynet's, the protection i've had for all this waste of time i'm here again, for you to find one soft knock and you're coming in wish i could scream but i'm paralyzed wish i was doubtfull but i'm out of doubts step right in,

and seduce me

i was born for you to breake, darling, i know your eyes can undress me, your voice weaks me every feeling that i have ever felt comes alive in your touch, so touch me you are everything i want to find

wish i was doubtfull but i'm out of doubts
step right in,
and seduce me

i know you can, i know you wanna make me, shake me, take me, emotionally rape me i know you understand, i'm all you demand love me, hurt me, need me, just feel me

wish i was doubtfull but i'm out of doubts
step right in,
and seduce me
wish i was doubtfull but i'm out of doubts
step right in,
and seduce me
