you were the love i had to proof
the piece i had to loose it was a heart thats now broken it was a door you couldnt open it was a key you couldnt find it was something you had in mind

you were the love i had to proof
you were my strenght, i was your fears you made me weaker, gave me tears but the little things you gave are those things i'll always save it was a fear, you were afraid it was love that you never made it was a part you couldn't touch a part of your heart i needed so much

you were the love i had to proof
you made me weaker, gave me tears
are those things i'll always save
