You must be used to scaring people
'cause it dont seem to bother you that they run
you thought that you could treat me bad calling me names, making me sad you should listen up,
'cause its my move
and today it's coming down i wont shut up
and i wont listen

i'm maybe young but i'm not stupid
and you should know, you're sinking your own ship
one more word, come on,
i wont hush you
keep on talking, 'cause i'm recording every little word
as a proof to the world
you're guilty

I used to
cry over you,
scream over you,
get mad over you
Now its my time
to make you see
There's more to me
i'm breaking free
What can you do?
To stop the truth?
I'ts up to you

you must think that it makes you a man to push us down, and laugh about it
'cause i bet you do you're walking around like you own everything talking us down, like we're nothing you're about to fall
'cause i'm getting strong
and today it's coming down,

i'll tell them everything you should listen

you keep on telling everyone that i'm a fool hoping that i'll breake the rules but this girls got more brains than you admit to everything, come on,
tell everyone,
you know i'm about to bring you down and your ego
i'll proof to the world that you're crazy

scream over you,
to make you see
What can you do?
To stop the truth?

i dont deserve it
i know it
and i never expected it from someone like you
i try to be better
i try to respect you
but i'm worth so much more you can't hurt me
anymore

I used to
scream over you,
to make you see
What can you do?
To stop the truth?
I'ts up to you
