i dont know where i am
or how i ended up here and it happends to me
everytime you're near

i try to move my hand but i'm frozen in your eyes i have to catch my breathe everytime you're near

suddenly i'm filled up with happiness
from head to toe
dont know where i came from
or where i'm suppose to go dont know what to think or how to be
i really dont know what happends to me i just know you're here

one second lasts forever and my head is spinning i cant come back to life

you open up your mouth but i can't hear a word

i really dont know what happens to me
i just know you're here
