"Mistress Of The Sea"

I want you
Only want now
I don't need you
But I need you now
You smile through me

Oh to kiss you
To kiss your mouth
Oh I long for
Your touch so soft
You smile through me
As we start to sink

I want you now, you want me too
But I can't shake this single truth
You love me more than life itself
But still you're just my doxy girl
To contain you
Never dreamed it would be
I don't know you
You're so sure you know me
Goodbye, Once More
Too soon? Not sure

Come Around, stay
Silence broke, now stay
