mortal veil feel down on us scream in agony mutants and degeneration deformation of body and soul forecast of pestilence is confirmed harmed core of self function beautiful gray world

on every sidewalk the abyss full of our sins we suffocate with our own remorse apocalyptic visions you begin look and instantly avert your eyes shades of gray are walking on street everywhere you look, only monotopic action look straight on our beautiful gray world optic deceptions in impure visions
