My friend dressed in black always watching me from some distance devoted fellow, enemy of the flowers Mother of the ones who suffer So many fears, so many loves you I know that your face is fair Nothing more will exist Everything will continue the same

Money, power and blue sky means nothing when people die democracy, sympathy, you and I
means nothing when people die darkness, storms, calm and joys souls screaming in agony children playing in innocence where we came from we are innocent victims natural losers
hungries in a banquet corpses without soul Repeat chorus
why we fear fate?
why we fear deliverance?
hell is on men's earth Heaven is on dead's earth
