Don't believe the lies
Your Daddy doesn't love you anymore
Don't you compromise
Or I'll just have to show you out the door
A thousand loaded guns
With just an ounce of gunpowder between them
Conjugate the verb
In Hebrew she is he and they are hem

And if they'd asked me when they'd asked me just the Other day
But if they'd asked me when they'd asked me then what
Would I say?
And I'd say

No I don't want to be the same
I don't want to have to change
I don't want to have to bear myself in public
No, I don't want to rearrange
Don't want to play your stupid games
And I'm wondering does anybody give a flying fuck?

Don't give into stress
Because you know it's gonna bring you down
And don't you wear that dress
Wouldn't you prefer an evening gown?
Don't compromise me
Because I know how easy it could be
With 24 hours of a 12 hour day
You know I'm 10 times lamer than you'll ever be

I don't want to be like you although I know you want me
To
There's nothing left for me to do there's nothing left
At all
