[Chorus]

Let the music hold the sign
Let the music hold the sign
Let the music hold the sign
Let the music hold the sign

We talk in person, never on the phone
That cocaine talk, never on the phone
That gun talk, never on the phone
Man I told yâ'all, never on the phone
They gave petey 20 years for talking on that line
Like a signature for real, that life on line
They went from selling dimes, to droppin dimes
Like a president on court is facing 25
My people getting quarter on that corner grind
Crack lord change give em back some time
My work donâ't come back, man that bitch rewind
We seein more blocks than a scrimmage line
You know I keep them kannos in that drunk line
Jesus turn water to some good wine
Lean on turn cocaine into a gold mine
Yâ'all niggas roll yâ'all money, I canâ't fold mine

[Chorus]

Let the music hold the sign
Let the music hold the sign
Let the music hold the sign
Let the music hold the sign

We talk in person, never on the phone
That dough talk, never on the phone
That murder talk, never on the phone
Man I told yâ'all, never on the phone

Fuck a white fence, I want a white block
I touch more keys than a laptop
Under the sun itâ's getting hot, we sellin 10 rocks
We protect our dope spots with them globe dops
Them snitches droppin dimes more than coin slots
Murphy should have died, fuck that robocop
If my right man snitching man I cut it off

My left hand dead cause the...
The sugar in the kitchen doesn't make cool e
Them niggas know I'm good with pushin yay
The only letters on my body be that hk
The only letter in the car be the ak

[Chorus]

Let the music hold the sign
Let the music hold the sign
Let the music hold the sign
Let the music hold the sign
