And as the season changes
And I am rearranging
No reason to interrogate
The prophet of a broken limb

You lit a fire up under
All the places I lived in
I watched 'em burning the flesh
Across the moon stricken waters
Did I fight?

Reminiscent
I'll go reminiscent
Till the dark sheds it's light

And as the feelings are changing
My heart is really racing
I see no reason to check
The pulse of a lion broken mountain

I lit a fire up under
All the places you lived in
I watched 'em burning the flesh
Across the moon stricken waters
Did I fight?

Go reminiscent
I'll go reminiscent
Till the dark sheds it's light
