Baby i've been watching you
Watching everything you do
And i just can't help the feeling
Someone else's stealing you away from me
I see it written in your eyes
You conform it with your lies
Though the web you weave can hold me
I would rather that you told me
Where you wanna be

Ooh slipping away from me
Ooh slipping away from me
And it's breaking me in two
Watching you slipping away

Baby i've been watching you
Watching everything you do
And i just can't help the feeling
Someone else's stealing you away from me
I see it written in your eyes
You conform it with your lies
Though the web you weave can hold me
I would rather that you told me
Where you wanna be

Ooh slipping away from me
Ooh slipping away from me
And it's breaking me in two
Watching you slipping away

And it's breaking me in two
Watching you slipping away

And it's breaking me in two
Watching you slipping away

Baby i've been watching you
Watching everything you do
And i just can't help the feeling

Someone else's stealing you away from me
I see it written in your eyes
You conform it with your lies
Though the web you weave can hold me
I would rather that you told me
Where you wanna be

Oooh slipping away from me
Oooh slipping away from me
And it's breaking me in two
Watching you slipping away

And it's breaking me in two
Watching you slipping away

And it's breaking me in two
Watching you slipping away

And it's breaking me in two
Watching you slipping away
