"The Last Candle"

Abngels shout
Lead your way among the stars
Angels shout
Kill all the beautiful lies
Stars fall to the ground on a season so cold
Want to sleep through the endless sad time

Silent time
On the night of the storm
Silent time
When you kill all beautiful lies
From the long dark nights nothing remains
I am the helpless one touched by the flame

The last candle
Before you die
The last candle
Let it fade away

This will be the last candle before you die
All light will end on the night of the storm
Silend time when you burn the last candle

Walking through the mirror a silver stone shines
The deadly drop of blood shown before your eyes
Bloody gates opens, demons crawl inside
