Chorus:

What is life is it just an illusion
what is life just a second in time
What is life nothing else but confusion
deep shadows in a ray of the light.
What is life is it just an illusion
what is life just a second in time
What is life nothing else but confusion
deep shadows in a ray of the light.

Life just isn't always as it seems sometimes you keep living on your dreams but on this streets you gotta hold on to cause in the end comes nothing but faith there are times where everything works out fine everything works out fine what's on your mind whatever you might touch seems to be golden whatever you might do seems to be right

Chorus:

What is life is it just an illusion
what is life just a second in time
What is life nothing else but confusion
deep shadows in a ray of the light.
What is life?
Deep shadows
in a ray of the light
What is life? nothing else but confusion
what is life?
what is life?

What is life?
What is life?

Chorus:

What is life is it just an illusion
what is life just a second in time
What is life nothing else but confusion
deep shadows in a ray of the light.

Is there any sense in what we call life are we born once and then we gonna die or will we all be born once again to earn and pay for what we have done.

[Chorus:]
What is life?
what is life?
what is life?
what is life?

Just an illusion
