

Babatunde Tony Ellis

"Nothing From Nothing"

Visit "Nothing From Nothing" on MotoLyrics.com

Kor even day that passes, there'll be a settin' sun
For even man who dies, a new born baby cries.

For all the wrongs committed, sufferralion day by day
The ones who are laughing now are the ones who will have to pay

Nothing from nothing leaves nothing
There's got to be something

For every man who deals only for his own pleasure and pretends that he doesn't see his brother lying in the gutter

Will never know peace of mind or enjoy lifes treasures
'Cause when the fire gets hot, it will be total destruction

Nothing from nothing leaves nothing
There's got to be something

Fire, red hot
Thunder inna Babylon
Brimstone, burnin', burnin'
Thunder inna Babylon
Fire, mek it burn, mek it burn
Thunder inna Babylon
Earthquake, red hot
Thunder inna Babylon

For Jah so loved the world, he gave us his only son
So we may live and learn and be united as one

All those who are preachin' hatred, will find no salvation from Jah
'Cause on the dav of judgement they will he left in the Fire

Nothing from nothing
There's got to be something

