Another endless night is gone
I couldn't fall asleep
the world is tumbling down on me, oh yeah do you remember yesterday do you remember me I couldn't get away from you even when you've gone away from me you've gone away from me so tell me why, I'm missing your blue eyes I don't regret a single tear that I've cried for you I don't regret a single day so respect my love

REFRAIN:

I'm lost in your blue eyes

The only way back to your heart is tellin' you the truth but I won't beg upon my knees no I won't back down, no, no I'm waitin' for a sign I'm tryin' for so long the innocence of life's been gone
So listen to my words

REFRAIN untill fade
