Everybody's talking but I'm out of attention.
I can only feel the information passing by.
I'm deep inside a bubble and there's noone here to shout me out.
The storm inside my head got me tossing and turnin'.
Each and every night I've been a victim of my brain.
I know I gotta take a rest but I just don't know how!

My twisted universe just won't let me go!
Finally got me on my knees.

Please! Please! Please!
I don't need another night like that.
Please! Please! Please!
Leave me alone and don't you dare to come back!
I don't want you!
You just came to keep me awake.
Just to murder my sheets so
Please! Please! Please!
Let me sleep!

This is what I call a case of mind over matter.
Locked up in the bedroom with the world to change.
The ghost in my machine is set in such a good time right now.

And still that troubling madness won't let me go!
So here I am down on my knees.

Please! Please! Please!
I don't need another night like that.
Please! Please! Please!
Leave me alone and don't you dare to come back!
I don't want you!
You just came to keep me awake.
Just to murder my sheets so
Please! Please! Please!
Let me sleep!

Well, this is not a healthy way to be.
I think you had your fun now set me free!

Please! Please! Please!
I don't need another nightlife.
Please! Please! Please!
Leave me alone and don't you dare to come back!
I don't want you!
You just came to keep me awake.
Just to murder my sheets so
Please! Please! Please!
Let me sleep!
