Raindrops are fallin' on my head

I'm standing here on the parking lot
Waitin' for my girl, my umbrella is broken
My car's been stolen
What am I doin' here?

The wind is blowin', I'm gettin' cold
When will she appear?
I'm feelin' lonely my coat is wet
Nothin' more to fear

And raindrops are fallin' on my head
I said, raindrops are fallin' on my head
Raindrops

I'm still waitin' on the parking lot
My girl is not in sight
I think she left me for another guy
The one she met last night

I start to dream of a better day
My island in the sun
But when I awake I realize
Nothin' has been done

And raindrops are fallin' on my head
I said, raindrops are fallin' on my head
Raindrops

And I say

Raindrops

I said, raindrops are fallin' on my head
Raindrops are fallin' on my head
Raindrops

And I say
