"When To Laugh"

Visit "When To Laugh" on MotoLyrics.com

three men walk into a bar (and) the comedian starts he breaks the yolk of a laugh and sees the stiffening start the crew's not easily pleased and they're looking at me

the prophant lost my cue cards and i don't know when to laugh i'm paying no attention

no-one to answer my riffs i hate the more i think he fights the bachelor war she reads an idiot board life on an infinite lease? i'd rather pull all my teeth i'd rather pull
