The sun is shining on the sea today
You're living your life the easy way
You left behind, the world again
So be a tourist, hear the call
And you've been saving your money
You can spend it all and you can come away
With me today

Free from all you're meant to be
Come on baby, jump right in
'Cause tonight,
We can be right here where we wanna be
Come away, come away, get away

All your life you've been running from dreams
From the blue, the red and the orange and green
The times have changed, but you're not free
Take it all in you may never be back again
Living your life where you can do anything
Anytime, anything

Free from all you're meant to be
Come on baby, feel the breeze
'Cause today
We can be right here where we wanna be
Come away, come away, get away
Come away, come away, get away
