Into the night you fled
Betrayed me
Your hollow heart
And luring stare

My blood ran cold
Then I heard him
From far away
A lullaby

Out of my deep despair
My lover sang a melody
He sent a ray of light to me
And saved me from the darkness

'Cause when I heard his voice
It sparked a distant memory
A savior calling out to me
To set me free

How could it be the face
Of an angel
Could drag me down
And leave me blind

Out of my deep despair
My lover sang a melody
He sent a ray of light to me
And saved me from the darkness

'Cause when I heard his voice
It sparked a distant memory
A savior calling out to me
To set me free

I know my heart
Though weary
Must rise again
And come to you
