Wide awake in your bed
Heart's beating music in my head
You took the bounty, I kissed the sky
Holy water's got me running wild
Seven days and forty nights
City rats, snake eyes
You know I'm out there with a losing hand
They're gonna take me to some foreign land

Such a strange place inside my head
Makes it hard to breathe when I find
Somebody's playing doctor with my mind

When I feel you dreaming
Two worlds in which we live in
Rolls me, stones me
And tears me up inside
They got me walking the wire

Mother did you call my name

I heard a voice driving me insane
I kick the walls and I never sleep
Been reaching in way to deep
You say it's high time in your pick up line
You count the numbers and you're right on time
I'm out alone with the lines in my face
My Judge and Jury was the human race

Such a strange place inside my head
Makes it hard to breathe when I find
Somebody's playing doctor with my mind

When I feel you dreaming
Two worlds in which we live in
Rolls me, stones me
And tears me up inside
They got me walking the wire
And I'm coming your way
