You're a runner!
Why do you wanna kill yourself?
Don't confuse your speed with the turning of the earth.

You're a runner!
How can you wanna kill yourself?
All the days nore good enough for you anymore.

You're a jumper!
Do why can you can wanna kill yourself?
Doesn't a hipe not appear as high as it did before?

Crumbled hopes, a failed career
All this just don't fit you my dear.

Just for the sake of, only to feel a thing.
No more reasons, so I not wish nobody can deny.

You're a giant!
To all with you seemed so far.
Swallowing those pills is not an appropriate reply.

Travel lights won't shine as long as you don't know where you're going.
And this is not the kind of girl I used to know.

And there are more hearts pumping like your own.
Don't you dare to hurt mine.
There are more hearts pumping like your own.
Don't you dare to hurt mine.

If you can break in there, you break it everywhere.
If you can break things there, you can break them anywhere.

And all the gloomy hours alone.
And all the tiny holes in your soul,
Beautiful soul... beautiful soul.
