He give a fuck about must, think he starting to loose touch
He was tryina move up,
Reaching in his pockets only got a few bucks
So we calling up the homies like it's time to suit up
Fame coming to you, you gotta go and get it
Hit it double back, lay low then go and split it
But don't go and spend it, heat is what you don't need
He got a baby on the way and 2 more seeds
Gotta be the difference why, he isn't thinking logically
And probably to wither, to consider that ain't robbery
Ain't a petty crime, with some petty time
To grind and make a crazy mind, to ...him back his baby 9
No more wasting time, hop about a stolen whip,
One mission, 3 men, 3 cats on hit
Oh shit, get the dough in, erybody lay down
Make one motherfucking move you'll stay down
Coming out the door, Freeze! Police
He lift his piece before he squeeze,
Dropped to his knees, he laid there
As he watch himself bleeding,
... breathing

Her mama was a drunk and her daddy used to leave her
Every man that she loved, only fuck her then he leaved her
She used to be a stripper, but a couple babies later
The make up and the fake tits really couldn't save her
She say you learn a little bit, when you turn to couple tricks
Now she's fucking with a dude, known to move a couple bricks
Got a hood no talk now she always wants more
He could be the call her bitch, call her slut and a whore
Then he get her our of her clothes, powder her nose
... she won't cry about it no more
About as live as it goes, trying to ... some hoes
... she ain't in the traphouse, getting snapped round
She with the kids on the beach, pretty background

And she back now, start to calm down
... know we keep a gun around
People round the corner and he sleeping on the couch Floor started squinting and she creeping through the house
She open up the bag, ... a little bitch
He caught her red handed, started hitting on the bitch
He said, know I wasn't ... why you lying to me
Click clack, now she finally free, now she finally free
A ... really trying to see.
